Volunteering for everyone!

Thames21 has volunteering events suitable for people of all backgrounds, abilities and skill sets.

Our public events are free and open to all. We particularly welcome people who have suffered mental health problems, and those who consider themselves to be disabled.

In return, we offer you:

- * Safe and supported volunteering
- * Training and skills
- * Hands-on practical experience
- * A chance to get close to, and learn about, nature

THAMES21

Charity Reg. No. 1103997

Thames21 is the voice for London's waterways, working with communities to improve rivers and canals for people and wildlife.

We mobilise over 9000 volunteers every year to clean and green the capital's 400 mile network of waterways.

Have a look at our online calendar and see if there is something that suits you:
